Subject.— Grant of First Day's Bhiksha to the Swamigalu of Sri Krishnananda Mutt at Mulbagal, Tirthahalli Taluk.

Sri Krishnananda Mutt at Mulbagal, Tirthahalli Taluk, is a Muzrai Institution, and is endowed with Inam lands and provided with Honours as detailed in page 7 of the Honours Manual.

The Agent of the Mutt in his petition dated the 21st December 1935 addressed to the Muzrai Commissioner has stated that it is the intention of the Swamigalu to visit Mysore and Bangalore en route to Rameswaram on pilgrimage and prayed for the issue of necessary orders as regards the reception to be accorded to the Swamigalu on arrival in Bangalore City. The Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga, in his report to the Muzrai Commissioner has stated that the present Matadhipathi is said to be learned in Veda, Vedanta and Nyayasastra, and recommends that the Mutt may be classed in point of status along with avani and Majjigenahalli Mutts of Mulbagal, which are entitled to the grant of Rs.50 the first day's bhiksha.

Taking into consideration the antiquity and importance of the Mutt, and the personal qualifications and fitness of the Swamigalu, the Muzrai Commissioner has recommended for sanction the payment of a first day's bhiksha of Rs.50 on the occasion of his visit to Bangalore. I am of opinion that the proposal of the Muzrai Commissioner may be approved, with the proviso that this will form no precedent. The Dewan and the Second Member of Council agree.

I solicit His Highness' gracious approval to the above proposal.

SIR,

Grant of first day's bhiksha to the Swamigalu of the Sri Krishnanda Mutt at Kulbagal, Kolar Taluk.

In his petition dated 21st December 1935, the Agent of the above Mutt stated that the Swamigalu intended to visit Mysore and Bangalore en route his pilgrimage to Rameswara, and requested that necessary orders for his reception may be issued. A report was called for from the Deputy Commissioner and a copy of his reply Muz.1.C.1315/35 dated 20th January 1937 is sent herewith. The further statement dated 2nd March 1936 furnished by the Agent and enclosed in the records gives full details about the endowment of the Mutt, its position and the circle of its devotees etc. The institution has got extensive lands endowments both within and outside the State and the entire Smartha Brahman Community of Bhagvata Sampradaya constitutes its disciples. The present head is 58 years of age and succeeded to the peeta 42 years ago and is said to be well-learned in Veda, Vedanta and Nyaya Sastra. He has been exempted from personal appearance in the Civil Courts of the State and has also been given a general Rahadari in G.O.No.1553/Mus.533-3 dated 5th December 1910. In view of the antiquity and importance of the Mutt and the personal qualifications and fitness of the present Swamigalu, I recommend that the payment of a first day's bhiksha of Rs.50 on the occasion of his visit to Bangalore may
